Let's Start!

Taking the bus is a great way to meet new people!

Learning Outcome

Accurately use information about travel and vacations in social situations.

Ask your partner:

- What do you like to do when you travel? Read? Listen to music? Look out the window?
- How often do you talk to the person next to you?

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about what people do and what people did or were.
- I can report about things, actions, events, or people.
- I can start a conversation with a stranger.

Let's Explore!

John has a chance encounter on the bus!

* A "chance encounter" happens when you meet somebody new. It is a positive expression.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Stranger: Sorry, is this seat available?
John: Sure. Go ahead. The rest of my group is at the back.
Stranger: Oh! Are you a tour guide? I noticed your American accent.
John: Yes. Well, I worked on a cruise ship until last week.
Stranger: What a coincidence! I work as a tour operator!
John: In Guatemala?
Stranger: No, in Belize. I live on the coast. I relocated there from London.
John: I enjoyed scuba diving in Costa Rica five days ago. What type of tours do you run?
Stranger: We organize snorkeling trips. We provide everything you need to enjoy this tropical paradise.
John: May I ask you something? Why did you move to Belize?
Stranger: I grew tired of London and its gray skies. I lived in cold weather for too long! Listen, here's my card. Call me if you want to book a tour!
John: OK! Thanks!

Let's Practice!

What do you remember about John's traveling companion?

Instructions: Read the dialogue again. Select the correct answer.

1. What is the stranger's job?

Learning Points

Simple Present vs. Simple Past

You use the Simple Present tense to talk about a routine or a specific action that happens regularly. You use the Simple Present to describe a scene, or give personal information.

You use the Simple Past tense to talk about a finished event or a specific time in the past. You use expressions of time like last week, in 2009 or 2 days ago.

Simple Present	Simple Past
I work as a tour operator.	I worked on a cruise ship until last week.
I live on the coast.	I lived in cold weather for too long!
I enjoy scuba diving.	I enjoyed scuba diving in Costa Rica five days ago.
Where do you work?	Where did he work last summer?
Does he live near the coast?	Did they live near the coast when they were young?
I don't work here.	I didn't work here last year.
She doesn't enjoy diving.	He didn't enjoy diving last year.
