Let's Start!

Pronunciation Spot: Hey Jasmine. I thought I'd drop you a line ...

Learning Outcome

Accurately use information about travel and vacations in social situations.

Ask your partner:

- How often do you write letters?
- Who was the last person you wrote to? What was the letter about?

Can Do Statements

- I can say and use the soft g and c sounds.
- I can say and use -ed endings.
- I can identify key information in a short audio.

Let's Explore!

Peter is dropping Jasmine a line. What does he write about?

* To "drop a line" means to write a short letter or note.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Hey Jasmine,

Today was "shopping day!" I spent the whole day in Chichicastenango village market. I visited a lot of stalls. For Sally, I spotted a traditional blouse called "huipil". For Peter, I bought men's trousers with the same interesting geometric patterns. All the handcrafts are incredible! Vanessa is going to love the mat I got her. The fiber is twisted and woven into a design of butterflies in the center. I wanted to buy a wooden carving. They told me they could package it and ship it north to Cambridge. In the end, I didn't buy it. The prices were so cheap. The total came to only 95 cents! Now I'm travelling to Belize. Who knows what awaits me there ... How similar will it be to Guatemala?

Take care,
John

Learning Points

The Simple Past Tense

You use the Simple Past tense to talk about a finished event or a specific time in the past.

You can form the regular form of the Simple Past tense by adding -ed, -ied to the verb.

Some verbs are irregular. Their Past Simple form doesn't end in -ed or -ied, like became or was or won.

You pronounce / t / after voiceless sounds: / p /, / k /, / s /, / f / and voiceless / th / sound.

You pronounce / d / after voiced sounds: / b /, / g /, / v /, / z /, / m /, / n /, / l /, / r /, voiced / th / sound and all vowels.

You pronounce / id / after / d / and / t / sounds.

Verb	Past Tense with -ed ending
work	worked
smile	smiled
finish	finished
